

A PIECE OF THE BERLIN WALL IN CULVER CITY DISCOVERIES AT THE WENDE MUSEUM

Deputy Director of the Germany Information Center in Washington D.C., Dr. Georg Schulze-Zumkley (r.), made a stop at the Wende Museum (WM) on his recent trip to LA where he met with Justinian Jampol (l.), WM's founder and executive director. The museum, established in 2002 in Culver City, CA, is home to an extraordinary collection of manuscripts, books, artifacts and documentary materials of Cold War-era Eastern Europe, incl. material from all former Warsaw Pact States. An original piece of the Berlin Wall greets the visitor at the entrance. www.wendemuseum.org

