Administrative / Biographical History:

Alexander Smukler is a former Refusenik and a prominent member of the Soviet Jewish community. He was a central figure in the production and distribution of samizdat materials in the Soviet Union. Upon his immigration to the United States, he continued his activism on behalf of Jews from the former Soviet Union.

Smukler was born in Moscow on June 30, 1960. He attended the Moscow University of Technology and earned undergraduate and graduate degrees in civil construction in 1982. Since 1980, he has actively participated in underground Jewish and dissident movements in addition to having served as Editor-in-chief of numerous samizdat periodicals, including Informatsionnyi Byulleten' po Problemam Evreiskoi

Repatriatsii i Kul'tury (Information Bulletin on Issues of Jewish Repatriation and Culture) from 1987 to 1990. Smukler also served as a member of the board of the VAAD (Confederation of Jewish Organizations and Communities of the USSR) from 1987 to 1989 and as the Executive Director of both B'nai B'rith of USSR and the Jewish Information Center of Moscow from 1989 to 1991.

After immigrating to the United States in 1991, Smukler founded the All Ways International travel agency, serving as the President and CEO until 2001. From 2001 to 2006 he worked as the managing partner of Ariel Investment Group. He served as the Chairman of the Board of Century 21: Russia, Kazakhstan & the Ukraine from 2001 to 2014. The National Coalition Supporting Eurasian Jewry (NCSEJ) (formerly known as the National Council for Soviet Jewry (NCSJ)) first elected him as Vice President in 2004, and in 2008 the organization subsequently elected him as their President. Smukler currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Agroterminal, Ltd., as President and Founder of the American Foundation for Orphans Abroad, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Russian Jewish Congress.

Scope and content:

The Alexander Smukler Collection contains materials created and collected by Alexander Smukler related to: the production and distribution of Jewish samizdat in the Soviet Union, Smukler's activities as a Refusenik, and his continued activism based out of the United States. The collection contains over 40 different samizdat periodicals (highlighting the plight of Soviet Jews), samizdat publications distributed as part of the Biblioteka Aliya series-- focusing on Jewish cultural texts, samizdat publications outside the scope of the Biblioteka Aliya series regarding Jewish culture (literature, history, religion, etc.) and supplemental materials such as contemporary news clippings. Some of the included periodical titles are: Evrei v SSSR (Jews in the USSR), Tarbut Kul'tura (Tarbut Culture), Evrei v Sovremennom Mire (Jews in the Contemporary World), Leningradskii Evreiskii Al'manakh (Leningrad Jewish Almanac), Evreiskii Ezhegodnik (Jewish Annual), Informatsionnyi Byulleten' po Problemam Evreiskoi Repatriatsii i Kul'tury (Information Bulletin on Issues of Jewish Repatriation and Culture), Shalom, and others, in addition to samizdat editions of literary works (for example, copies of Exodus by Leon Uris).

The types of materials included are: editorial drafts of publications, publications published on photographic paper, rotaprint drafts, booklets, newspaper photocopies, bound volumes, drafts on onionskin paper, article drafts, copies of articles, newsletters, correspondence, typed publications, photocopied publications, handwritten publications, photocopies, photographic prints, photographic negatives and audiovisual materials.

System of arrangement:

The collection arrived with an existing arrangement. Materials were organized in a hybrid arrangement based on type and/or subject at the highest level. These original groupings have been maintained and have informed the series arrangement. These series are, in order: I. Jewish periodical samizdat, II. Biblioteka Aliya, III. Jewish book samizdat, IV. Jewish religious samizdat, V. Literature from the Ministry of Aliya and Immigrant Absorption (Israel), VI. Jewish Information Center in Moscow, VII. Press clippings, and VIII. Special format materials. The last series includes oversize materials which have been separated and placed into an appropriately-sized container. In these instances, separation sheets have been placed into the physical location where the oversized item was originally located.

System of arrangement (con't):

Series I. Jewish periodical samizdat further subdivides into sub-series based on the periodical title. This has no discernible order other than the original numerical ordering system, which is maintained here. It does appear to have a loose chronological / place of publication order.

Series II. Biblioteka Aliya is arranged in the order it was published in the Biblioteka Aliya monographic series.

Series III. Jewish book samizdat further subdivides into 4 sub-series based on topic. These sub-series are:

1. History of the Jewish People
2. Literature about the Holocaust
3. Zionism and the State of Israel
4. Fiction, literary criticism and journalism

Series IV. Jewish religious samizdat is arranged in the order in which it arrived at the Museum.

Series V. Literature from the Ministry of Aliya and Immigrant Absorption (Israel) is arranged in the order in which it arrived at the Museum.

Series VI. Jewish Information Center in Moscow is arranged in the order in which it arrived at the Museum.

Series VII. Press clippings is arranged in the order in which it arrived at the Museum. These were originally grouped together by region of publication (e.g. Soviet publications, Israeli publications).

Series VIII. Special format materials includes audiovisual mediums (photographs, VHS, etc.) and oversize newspapers/clippings that require medium-specific storage. Instances where an item has been removed from its original location have been noted with separation sheets in the originating location indicating that the item has been moved to this series.

Folders that originally transported materials to the museum are retained at the end of the collection.
